

Level What Profee Say About H.

Hon, W. H. Relfauch Re-Member 1 is the reconstitute to striking. W Va. Lawle avery, gut och b. N. E., Washington D. C., write at all times for Periods as a medicine and times for Periods as a medicine and time un qualed. Phase the form her to tea on Priday badly random a subborn cold and the dear tell pleaded Mrs. Caverier tried it for a simblorn cond and hadly runded now seem. I tried all sorts of other medicines and paid the had you must positively promise several expensive doctor bills.

Pecunicused me, strengthened me more than ever, and saved me many phases bestime his must's horn to the lady Winstelling.

SAITH THE OWL

In the condesqueet of the the charge of girls and course

bleg: world bear module activities and to fint we mall sequenter it on her-

Many a find young wettern hopes come home coffined in long while ca-

The only levels that room should not be a from the wear are the heads of

Go alread out Godepeed you, my though the bound the desired out the sighte you see A mercia financiar is a yearh of to-

Schor with more word make his fatherefore were of pleasibility.

chaperon one noth cars that here Rinot and end that already by ratios to

SAYINGS OF THE BAGES.

He is safe iron danger who is on his guard even when safe. Syron.

He who is afraid of asking is sinky back at her side."

Reliamed of tearning.—From the Dan. Hers Adela's wrath history out. "Ica

It is time to bray From the Span-The only competition worthy a wise man is with himself.-Anna Jame

A babe is an angel whose wings the French.

Foremost of French Veterans.

guardian of the Bastile column laugh of piercing sitte-ness. and taken to Darmstadt and at the rendiness near by. fall of the empire became conclume of the Bastile.

"NO TROUBLE"

To Change from Coffee to Postum.

"Postum has done a world of good for me," writes an Ills. man.

"I've had indigestion nearly all my life but never dreamed coffee was the cause of my trouble until last Spring I got so bad I was in misery all the

"A coffee drinker for 30 years, it irritated my stomach and nerves, yet I was just crazy for it. After drinking it with my meals, I would leave the table, go out and lose my meal and the coffee too. Then I'd be as hungry

"A friend advised me to quit coffee and use Postum—said it cured him. Since taking his advice I retain my food and get all the good out of it, and don't have those awful hungry spells, "I changed from coffee to Postum without any trouble whatever, felt better from the first day I drank it. I am well now and give the credit to Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Lady Newdigate's Finger.

BY EDGAR FAWCETT.

rarned very pule, but his usually

You didn't see me when you came in, and no matter what might have thin. I have been here but a short lime, and I came here to tell my old

Adela's by was curied. "Really, I am not interested in your confidences

For the best of all reasons,"

Proline answered, somewhat sadiy, 1 had hoped that you would be. My 'm-portant matter was the deep wish that I feel, Miss Adels, to ask you to become my wife, and my intention of approaching you to morrow with this (to me) very momentous request."

Adula crimsoned, and drooped her

Why haven't you told me this?"

ing toward him with a fragmentary

I really haven't had time."

that which you have just described."

"THE R LIEFT MY PINCELL"

ab rattled off along the big square,

Cyril and Lady Newdigate stood staring, so to speak, at one another a mu-

"And now she has just refused you.

"I have hope—much hope. Events ally, I am certain, she will gordon give me for laughling, but it struck ma-

you to death in aix weeks, with her moralities and proprieties. Am ; not enough for you sa regards both? 1 hate her. I hate every one who would separate us. No one shall; no one shall! Poor dear old Raiph is ten

"This girl-a nice girl, but a trifle

not true. Still, I lift my finger now,

Cyril. You've been terrible. I didn't dream you could be so terrible. But never mind; I forgive you this once,

Cyril stood quite motionless. But he might have made some answer if the library ten seconds later, red-

"Bless my soul," he cried. "I met

Lady Jenny Smythe as I was coming home in my cab, and Lord Lymelynde was with her; he usually is, you know -- ha! ha! ha! I asked 'em to drop in for dinner-pot luck, you know-and go with us to-night. They accepted his goings-on with Lady Jenny, I'm blessed if I-well, never mind. You will stay and dine, Cyril, that's a good

"I-I was just trying to remember."

His eyes again met Lady Newdi

And Cyril Proigne stayed and, dined

old chap!"

and see: I lift my finger."

years older than both of us.

"So droll?" he wavered.

"You meant it?" she said.

"Absolutely,"

At once Adels, allipted from the its siful us he had ever seen her.

important matter.

to Lady Newdirate."

Flora Newdigate had other devotees, am converned, you may lift your finger

Ent made so prominent as Prolyne. at once or not at all.

Sir Thigh, her humand, by this 'Really?' Lift my finger? But 1 Men Who Were Loudest in Their De time, had reased to be illumined at don't understand. The exquisite fines nunciation of the Democratic Nobodi ever said, however a moved devotorally instellabel no in the care." "Is he isothered." Everybody realized that even if he based the whole proceeding, he was Adela, with far more quiet than also quite too emotionless a person cout- felt. "I never knew till to-day that Mr. Cyril Proigne had paid you court wardly) to give a sign. Mr. Cyril Proigns had paid you court Proigns "did nothing," and did it for years. I never knew till to-day the Mrs. Caverley did min' She placed voice was never more composed. had been a London belle in her day. Looking straight at Adela, he spoke, and had cherished the man whom abe-

we find her sipping tea and falling at once have discovered myself like with the daughter of a dear head

Now Amelia" she was earing T finise that I can confide to you that I derest the whole thing tordish. I want I to end. It must end.

I think there might be a way," Lody Cheatsheaf mused aloud.

Then she told Proigne's aun; what the way" was Mrs. Caverney was podding somber by when she finished. "Not at all had, they sear; not at all had. You're the core of woman who could bring them Adela Strafford, of comyour stop-sister, and just roof; to sphear in the world. Only 18, 100.

You can use my name and word y kin we as much more beautiful

1 In the near future. Lady Wheat the Ind an the re-arres of a gray. Mrs. Carn Liberth Senford, Ital., Wattra San sometimes confront that and Link to December 1 to the Water that the reality fiel been to fully presented thousand seem profitime day at a Helgravian aforence erust, Lady Wheatsheaf drew Mrs. Caverley ande

"My transpred young states has talkto in lave, she said.

"What With Cyrut So quidlet" "It lead so quickly, after all the teen several woods, you know."

The was serrier when she went tome that afternoon, to her house in fart-THAT SQUARE,

"You doin't go anywhere to day, then, Adels ?"

The girl turned from a window through which she had been under sown at the floor-driven calm and victurner Her eyes were wherebecome, but her more leaded brave, though harably pursued.

"Mrs. Pullified has been been Ame-We have had quite a long to he "Moretical little cumulai-monger," Ur and Ludy Wheatsh hands of the ce is the greatest of "This Mrs. Covering and you are Art holds for when all clas is lost.

"ch. has fold my energining." Adela Wint-what?"

Art holds for when all clas is lost. have been using my so- alled 'resen-blance' to her as a lare. That Lady Newslighte laughs at the whole affair, In the court of his own conscience | and has made it plans that she need no guilty man is acquitted. Juvenal, only if: a finger to have him report-

#il truef" she cried. "I den't blame you, or Mrs. Cavarley either. You both had your motives. You, Amelia, have always wanted me to marry what you call well. Besides, I-I love you too much to blame you for anything." "Cyril," she went on, "you mean The girl paused, and drew in a long that you really love her? Well, if you breath. "But Cyril Projens! I should decrease as his legs increase.-From like to meet him once more, and I

"Adela! Why-why""

"To tell him how infinitely I despice The French movernment has just him for having dared to use me as his pensioned off Francois Geromini, the makeshift, hi rat's paw." She gave a Geromini was a character. He left the finger of his itol couldn't have Corsica 60 years ago to serve in the been lifted without employing a poor, grenadiers of the imperial stared the young country girl like myself as the fought in the campaigns of Algiers lever force!" She echood her own She echoed her and of Rome, and also in 1870 with laugh again, and caught up a mantle Mourbaki. He was made a prisoner and hat which had evidently lain in should die, I'll-I'll wait a year, and then I'll marry you-there!" "Adela!" panted her sister, "where on earth are you going? Surely not bourgeoise, you must admit-said that I'd boasted of how I need only lift my finner to have you back again.

"No," shot the dogged reply, "as if I would! I'm going to her. "One moment, Adels," threw out Lady Wheatsheaf.

But the girl darted away. To Grosvenor square from Portman was only a short drive. "I think, Miss Stra ford," said the Sfr Raiph Newdigate had not entered autier, who had a long-tried memory the library ten seconds later, and recognized Adela as having called faced, massive, perspiringly hot. one day with ner sister, the nitraemort marchioness of Wheatsheaf, "that Lady Newdigate is just at present in the library."

Lady Newdigate, a dream of lovellness in clinging violet sliks, rose as she entered.

"Ah, you're glone;" azid Adela, (including old Smythe, of course ha! glancing here and there and finding ha! ha!). How old Smythe can stand that only coigns of shadow and patches of brightness encircled that one enchanting figure in the half-gloomed chamber Lady Newdigate of whom it had been declared that an active volcano murmured Proigne, pulling at his chestnut mustache nervously. could not non-plus her) merely answered: "Won't you have a cup of tea?" "No, thanks. I don't care to alt down, either. I simply came to tell that evening in Grosvenor square, you Lady Newdigate, that as far as I (Copyright, 197), by J. seph B. Bowles,

RECORD IS BLACK.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS GUILTY OF FRAUD AND CORRUPTION.

Party as Dishonest Shown Up in Their True Colors.

The Republican party has always claimed to be the party of great moral Its orators' and newspaper orwith conspicuous luxury. Had not his that the attentions he has shown me gaus chief stock in trade has been to parents died genteel paupers? Who were caused by his wish to regain charge dishonesty against the Demograve him his sumptions that in his your favor.

Vere Gardens? It was his aut; the Adela was turning away when a the dishonesty shoe fits the Republican eratic party. It is well to see how the dishonesty shoe fits the Republican purate, as did also his eyes. Hands Vere Gardens? It was his aut; the Addia was turning away was the Gardens? It was his aut; the Addia was turning away was the Gardens? It was his aut; the Addia was turning away was party. "In its 'National Honor' cam arms, chest and back, in short the ly this lady didn't mind about Lady by copious palms. Instantly the girl palgn of 1836," says the Buffalo whole body was covered over and Newdigate any more than Sir halph recognized Cyril Proigne. He had Times, "the Republican managers colorer. We had no rest by day or night." lected a $16,090,000 corruption fund from corporations and individuals, who were even then breaking and defying the laws of the country, and with that enormous fund bought the have itched most fearfully. presidency. But the charge that the frequently heard. friend, Lady Newdigate, a somewhat 1896 charged that the Democratiic candidate was a dishonest leader of dishonest men. We know now that at that very time he was an embez zie: for $1,660,000.

Timelow, the Milwauke banker, in 1900 pleaded for the election of the Republican national ticket in the interest of honesty and to save the businew interests of the country from the dishenest methods of the Democratic party. We know now that at that very time he was a defaulter for $2,000.

"David E. Sherrick, for a number Lady Newdiga e mid to Proigne, turn- of years has been putting in his time denouncing Democrate and charging so of laughter, and looking as least distancety against Democratic lead ers and Democratic theories. He was Prounce took out his watch and the state treasurer of Indiana elected

According to Harper's Weekly, Marchanced at it. "I have been here just upon a Republican ticket, He, too

chall P. Wider tells of a young the five minutes, dear lody, as you'll ado fell a victim to the correction influ onces of graft. He was taken from burst from the office of secretary of state to the Adels, "to tell you that, to-morrow or Indicha penitentiary at any future day, Mr. Proinne, you need make no work request of me as was another distinguished Republican "Newton Dougherty, of Peorla III., netive in Republican politics in his brary. Cyril Prolitic made several and standing, president of two banks swift pursuant steps. Then havecoded Ha commenced in 1896 to denounce from the doorway through which she the distances of the Democratic plat the dishons sty of the Democratic plat had passed. While Adela's unheard form and the dishenosty of Democrat the National Educational assuem tion, and numerous other educations constructions. His except of useful note has been very recently brought to a sadden termination. Upon his own confession of guilt he is serving now a sentence in the great prison at foliat, III., an embezzier for more than million dollars. We know now that loant before the compains of 1896 by was steading the funds committed to

"In Illinois on interesting contest for the United States squate is being wanted by two distinguished Repub-iteans. One of them, in order to give standing to his campaign, releated as his compains assumes in that great utate a distinguished Reguldiean lead and a booker who had spent his time for years probables from the pulpit the documes of the depublican party He missed no opportunity in 1896 to talk about the dishonests of the Dem. seraste platform. This gentleman was the president also of two banks and was preminently active in the interest of widows and orphans. He is not but he only escaped it by committing suicide when confronted with the evidence of his embezziement and other

"The failure of the Enterprise Na in the minds of all of us; the men who embezzled its funds were leaders of the Republican party in that state, T Lee Clark, its cushler, was an elder in the church. He is not serving a term do, she's refused you. Prny, pray for- in the Pennsylvania state prison; he escaped it by committing suicide. The men who were responsible for the fallure of this bank and assisted in "To think of you as a married man! tailing its funds were all of them.

And married to her! Why she'd hors men who have such years of their men who have spent years of their years of their life in demouncing the Democratic platform of 1896 as ad vocating dishonest doctrines; they were all of them champions, and ar dent champions, of the system of tective graft, and all of them fell vic If he time to its contaminating influences.

"John R. Walsh, of Chicago, while masquerading as a Democrat and denouncing at the same time the platform of 1896, and all other Democratic platforms since then, was engaged in the business of violating the law and misappropriating the funds bank. He finally threw off the mask and proclaimed that he was, and always had been, a Republican, and soon afterward the evidence of his violation of the law became apparent, and the Republican party is now protecting him from the penalties pre-scribed by the laws he has violated.

"The late Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, chief of a band of government land thieves, and two convicted Republican congressmen from that state; Senator Burton, of Kansas, the tool of the get-rich-quick swindling concern, to say nothing of former Senator Dietrich, of Kansas, trafficker in post of fices for graft, and several other prominent Republican officials and ex-officials, were all 'national honor' defenders in 1896 and 1900.

"The officials of the big life insurance companies in 1896 and 1990 said the Democratic party was not to be rusted, and contributed large sums to the Republican corruption funds. We know now that the money was stolen from widows and orphans and diat it was only a small part of the

BOY'S TERRIBLE ECZEMA.

Mouth and Eyes Covered with Crusta -Hands Pinned Down-Miraculous Cure by Cuticura.

Sheer white goods, in fact, any fire wash goods when new, owe much of their attractiveness to the way they are laundered, this being done in a manner to enhance their textile beauty. Home laundering would be equally satisfactory if proper attention was given to starching, the first essential being good Starch, which has sufficient strength to stiffen, without thickening

the goods. Try Deflance Starch and you will be pleasantly surprised at the

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" an Operetta.

as an operetta. It was originally sung at the Music Hall, Lynn, Mass., Oc-

A Square Deal-Sixteen ounces De-

When the average man dies the loss is generally covered by insurance

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

Prominent Cincinnati Woman Tells

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's egetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting scientists, and thinking people gener-

Mrs Sura Wilson

The following letter is only one of

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Finisham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinisham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marve arresults among sick and alling women.

Dear Mrs. Pinsham;—
"About nine months ago I was a great of feror with femile trouble, which caused us severe pain, extreme nervousness and frequent headnebes, from which the device failed to relieve me. I tried Lydas E. Fondam's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottles of it! was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid female tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain; and what a blessing it is to find such a remesty after many doctors fall to help you. I am plant to recommend it to all suffering women. Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 3d Street, Chr. immat, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful.

nat, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the atomach, indigestion, bloating, polyic catarda, nervous prestration, dizziness, faintness, 'don't-care' and "wunt-to-left-alone" feeling, excitability, but inche or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true semi-derangement of the organs.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham;-

Compound Completely Cured Hor.

tober 6, 1886.

fiance Starch for 10c.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has been given improved appearance of your work.

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and sup-Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise be would acratch his face and make an open sore. I think his face must ITS MERIT IS PROVED

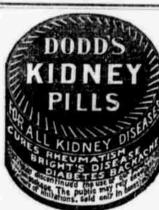

"We finally thought nothing could Democratic party was dishonest was belp, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Eu-Andrews, the Detroit banker, in rope, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. Lord be blessed matters came differently, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Catjoura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well. and his skin was smooth and white as never before. F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Manufacturers of Silk Ribbons, 4 to 20 Rink Alley South Bethlehem, Pa., June 5, 1905."

in Wilkesbarre who had aspirations to the hand of a daughter of one of the wealthiest men in that place. Recently the hopeful one had an inter view with the father for the purpose of laying the matter before him. "Well," grawled the old man, state; a man of national reputation 1 most desire to know is, what preparation have you made for the fu-"Oh." exclaimed the sultor, in turo a confident and obliging tope, "I am a Presbyterian; but, if that denomination doesn't meet wife your approval, I am quite willing to change.

India's Cotton Crop.

The cotton crop of India was larger last year, 1905, than the general average. About 20,000,000 acres were planted in cotton and the yield was about 3,500,000 bales. During the year there were exported from India to other countries over 2,125,000 bafes of raw cotton at a value of over $81. 000,000, the four countries, Japan, Germany, Relgium and Italy, in the order named, being the largest purchasers they together buying nearly 1,500,000 bales of Indian cotton, while Jupan alone took nearly 500,000 bates.

"All things come to him who waits" is a high-sounding but senseless phrase. Poor-houses and potter's field are filled with waiters.

BEADERS OF THIS PAPER. PESITING TO BUY ANYTHING ADVERTISED IN ITS COLUMNS SHOULD INSIST UPON HAVING pound.

DEFIANCE STARCH "DEFIANCE" IS SUPERIOR QUALITY.

LIVE STOCK AND ELECTROTYPES

If afficien with ! Thompson's Eye Water

